

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVES

The investment objective of the EP Emerging Markets Fund (the “Fund”) is to seek long term capital appreciation. The Fund seeks to achieve its investment objective by investing at least 80% of its net assets, which include borrowings for investment purposes, in equity securities of companies that are tied economically to emerging market countries. The Fund defines emerging market countries as those that are, at the time of investment, included in Morgan Stanley Capital International (MSCI) Emerging Markets Index. The advisor considers a company to be economically tied to an emerging market if the company is organized under the laws of an emerging market country, the company derives at least 50% of its total revenues or profits from an emerging market country, or if the company’s equity securities are primarily traded on an emerging market exchange.

INVESTMENT PROCESS HIGHLIGHTS

The Fund uses a top-down allocation approach to select what it views as the most fundamentally sound countries to invest in and a bottom-up approach to select high-quality, undervalued companies. The Fund’s strategy seeks to diversify currency risk and takes a long-term investment view with low portfolio turnover.

GEOGRAPHIC SELECTION

The Fund reviews and focuses on the countries it views to have the best fundamentals. Selection criteria includes an expected 1-2 year trade surplus, high real interest rates, low debt-GDP ratio, favorable real GDP growth estimates and stock market price-to-earnings valuations that are attractive relative to expected earnings growth.

SECTOR SELECTION

The Fund reviews and selects sectors it believes will perform well against a global macro economic backdrop, and in the countries it focuses on. The Fund will focus on sectors in individual countries with favorable growth outlooks, well-positioned against anticipated secular shifts in supply/demand plentiful resources and a favorable political and regulatory environment.

SECURITY SELECTION

Primary to the Funds investment process is bottom up analysis and security selection. The Fund focuses on three main characteristics to select individual securities:

ATTRACTIVE VALUATION – Rather than focus solely on cheap companies, the Fund looks for value using a number of quantitative and qualitative factors applied over a universe of approximately 3,000 individual securities.

FINANCIAL STRENGTH – The Fund selects companies with strong balance sheets to reduce capital risk and earnings volatility. The Fund also believes undervalued companies with strong balance sheets are most likely to have the ability to unlock value when attractive opportunities present themselves.

HIGH BUSINESS AND MANAGEMENT QUALITY – The Fund selects companies with strong management teams and a history of generating consistent returns and value for shareholders.

The risks are magnified in emerging markets countries, since these countries may have relatively unstable governments and less established markets and economies.
